SKINNERS IN SILK.

By Mack Sennett!

FEB -9 1925

Cecil Stockton and his partner, young brokers, take a flyer "Scotch Labels" preferred and find that they have been STUNG. They strive to recoup their losses by getting additional business. A lady customer, resenting the attentions of Cecil's partner complains to her husband who, in turn, goes to the office and assaults Cecil by mistake. Fearing that her husband may be too vigorous in his actions the wife follows, discovers he is beating the wrong man and in the scramble Cecil discloses the shares of stock thought worthless and sells them at a big profit.
